Class History

As freshmen, there were 30 students enrolled in Monroe and 16 enrolled in Kirkland. That was the year they got the idea of "consolidating" into one school.

When we came back to "Adams Central" as sophomores, we felt really proud because we were no longer green freshmen. One of the first things we did was to hold the election of officers. The following officers were elected: President, Dave Nussbaum; Vice-President, Doyle Arnold; Secy. and Treas., Millard Habegger.

To give our class treasury a boost, we decided to sell pop at noons during the first semester. We enjoyed a class party which was held at the C.C.C. Camp at Bluffton.

Now recognized as juniors, we came back to try our luck for another year. Roe Lehman was elected as President, Dave Nussbaum as Vice-President, Millard Habegger as Secretary, and Doyle Arnold as Treasurer. Mrs. Reed was our class sponsor.

To raise money for our class treasury, we sold magazines, all-occasion cards and Christmas cards, and sponsored the Dixie Four. All the projects were very successful.

During the year, we enjoyed two class parties and also sponsored a school skating party at Ft. Wayne.

In March, Miss Preston directed our class play, "Off the Track."

We re-entered school as "Big Seniors" and looked forward to achieve our goal. Thirty-five students were enrolled in this senior class. We chose the following class officers: Dave Nussbaum, President; Mary Ellen Byerly, Vice-President; Anna Inniger, Secretary; Fannie Habegger, Treasurer. The class chose Harve Haggard as our class sponsor.

To make money for our senior trip, we again sold magazines and sponsored the Dixie Four. These proved to be a big success. We also sold concessions at ballgames.

On November 2 we presented the senior play, "Love Your Neighbor."

The senior class chose the red rose as its class flower. The class colors chosen were maroon and silver and the class motto chosen was "Backward never, forward ever."

We plan to leave on our senior trip May 10. The baccalaureate service is to be held May 18 and Commencement on May 20.

And now as we say "GOOD-BY" to our school days we realize we are saying "HELLO" to the world and going to see what we can achieve.

Class Will

The other day as I was walking through the hall I saw a sheet of paper on the floor. I went over and picked it up and opening it I read:

"As Seniors of the Adams Central High School, we are obligated to leave behind certain treasures that were willed to us. To the fortunate students and faculty we leave the following:

To the Juniors, we will the opportunity to be such well behaved and well-liked Seniors as we have been.

To the Sophomores, we will two more wonderful nine month school years during which they can study long and hard.

To the Freshmen, we will the privilege--when they are seniors--to initiate freshmen as we have done.

To Mr. Roberts, we will a whole student body that will never cause him any trouble at any time and will never sit on top of desks.

To Mrs. Reed, we will some girls that will know how to sew and cook.

To Miss Beavers, we will a play cast that will always be on time and will learn their lines in a short length of time.

To Miss Engle, we will a more co-operating and quieter study hall.

To Mr. Collier, we will a secretary who will do all his typing for him.

To Mr. Heiman, we will a new and modern laboratory.

To Mr. Goble, we will a new chair for him to stand on so that he can lead the band better.

To Mr. Stanley, we will a big, new and modern gymnasium.

To Mr. Lightle, we will some new mouse traps in hopes that he won't have to use them.

To Mr. Haggard, we will some salesmen who will not cause him to mutter to himself at ballgames.

To Mr. Bailey, we will a new and larger F.F.A. Club and some more pretty bright shirts.

Lester Schwartz leaves his ability to take his girl to class play practice every night to Luther Hedington.

Phyllis Kohli and Gloria Crownover leave their singing ability to Kay Ratcliff.

Roe Allen Lehman leaves his G.I. haircut and his basketball ability to Edward Nussbaum.

Jean Haines leaves her shy ways to Walter Hicks.

Henry Wagley leaves his ability to give the wrong answers to the right questions to Don Holloway.

Sally Ross leaves her ability to go steady to Ernest Liechty.

Bob Mitchel leaves his ability to play "center" on the basketball team to Bill Rowdon.

Enos Schrock leaves his height and ability to stick to one girl to Jim Brodbeck.

Mary Ellen Schnepp leaves her long hair to Barbara Walters.

Doyle Arnold leaves his noisy ability of always having the wrong thing to say to Leroy Chammess.

Pauline Schwartz leaves her ability to be good in class plays to Kenneth Ehrman.

Earl Yoder leaves his blonde, wavy hair and cute smile to Marvin Taylor.

Clifford Hirschy leaves his big "Haw! Haw!" laugh to Lyle Gerber.

Mary Ellen Byerly leaves her driving ability to Mary Michaels in hopes that she will make good use of it.

Bob Shaw leaves his short steps and slow gait to Virginia Mitchel.

Don Walters leaves his trombone to Pat Reed.

Fannie Habegger and Anna Inniger leave their ability to get into mischief to Willis Nussbaum.

Dale Warthman leaves the black Chevrolet he uses to go to see his girl friends in Decatur, to Earl Johnson in hopes that he can go up and see them.

Raymond Zurcher leaves his quiet ways to Marva Strahm.

Mary Lou Hannie leaves the cushion that she sits on when she drives the car to Gene Bluhm.

Norman Cook leaves his ability to sleep in government class and his drawing ability to Freddy Ehlerding.

Lester Schindler leaves his "hot rod" Plymouth to Eileen Funk in hopes she won't drive it so far, so fast.

Paul Sowards leaves his ability to run out of gas late at night to Elaine Freels.

Cleo Landis leaves his ability to drive Fords to Decatur to Hubert Isch.

Elizabeth Johnston leaves her ability to drive her boy-friend's car to Marilyn Durr.

Jim Riley leaves all his books to Wendell Beer in hopes that Wendell will use them more than he did.

David Sprunger leaves his freckles to Pat Barger.

Dale Hirschy leaves his ability to skip school and argue with all the teachers to Arlene Habegger.

Stanley Sprunger leaves his ability to sing "I've Been Working On The Railroad" to Donald Dick in hopes that he won't sing it so loudly.

John Liby leaves his ability to be slow, no matter what happens, to Roger Longenberger.

Herman Dick leaves his wavy hair and all his brothers to Walter Osterman.

David Nussbaum leaves his tan jacket to Coleen Hirschy in hopes that she will take better care of it than he did.

Millard Habegger leaves his ability and will to study to Eugene Weber.

Prophecy

TIME MARCHES ON!!

Time marches on and as we travel across the nation and the world, we find that people also march on!!

We find the graduated class of 1952 scattered all over the globe!

In order to glimpse the activities of our illustrious Seniors, let's go on a trip.

The year is 1970.

As we drive through the city of Decatur, we stop to "chat" with Doctor Roe Lehman who has become the leading psychiatrist in Adams County. He surely has a swank office. As we come out of his office we run into Bob Mitchel who has just had his first novel printed. He remarks that it's the best thing since The Egg and I, and is already on the best seller list. He is making his home on his farm near Decatur for a few weeks; however his offices are in Chicago. We ask him to direct us to a good eating place and he advises us to dine at Bob's Hash House. After finishing our meal we are introduced to the head chef and we find that it is none other than our own Bob Shaw.

Continuing our trip we pass through the large city of Rainsville, Indiana, which has a population of 400. Here we meet the "World's Champion Knitter of 1970"--Lester Schindler. Lester tells us that he is now employing his knitting skills to make articles for his own store here.

Leaving Rainsville, we make our next stop at Indianapolis. Here we visit a radio show, Miss Pauline Schwartz's, "Getting Married and Staying That Way." She tells us that her advice to all the lovelorn reaches millions of listeners daily. Leaving the studio, we drive to the outskirts of Indianapolis and we see signs advertising the "best" honey and honey bees. We inquired and found that it was no one but Earl Yoder who is doing a thriving business raising honey bees. Yep! They helped him win his bride too!

We were quite tired after our stay in Indianapolis and found the "wide open spaces" of Texas much to our liking. You see, we are being entertained as guests on a two-thousand-acre ranch owned by Lester Schwartz and Sally Ross, now Lester's wife. They comment that ranch life is very healthful for their five children.

Then in order to get a touch of sunny California, we journey to Santa Cruz where we drop in at the neat beauty salon owned by Mary Ellen Schnepp, who is responsible for a new hairdo known as the "ringlet cut." Her favorite pastime, of all things, is flying her privately owned sabre jet airplane.

From Miss Schnepp's fashionable shop we make a phone call to Hollywood. Our call is answered by Actor John Liby, now playing the role of an Arab Chief in his latest movie, "The Great Sheik."

Driving up the coast we stop at the University of Southern California in Berkeley, where we visit with Professor David Nussbaum. He's the mathematics and science instructor here. But he still finds time for an occasional ride on his "bicycle built for two."

Cutting across from Berkeley on our way back to Chicago we retire for the night at a hotel in Salt Lake City, Utah. Here we meet salesman Don Walters who is really a success selling "get thin" tablets and blond, curly wigs for the men with shiny foreheads.

After leaving Don we arrive in Chicago to be greeted by a new innovation of Bud Cook's--the mural decorations on the first floor of the Merchandise Mart. The rumor that this original piece of art has been nominated for the Pulitzer Prize is ascertained by Bud himself.

We had lunch with Bud at a Chicago restaurant and on our way out we see Clifford Hirschy with his fourth bride. Clif tells us that marriage is wonderful; the only trouble is that his wives don't think so.

During the evening we go to see the latest performance of "South Pacific." We are pleasantly surprised to find that Phyllis Kohli is one of the top performers of the show.

Before train time we go to the Chicago Institute of Science where our own "Einstien", Millard Habegger, is a student. Millard has just won the Nobel prize in science for his new theory on energy.

While waiting for our train, we read the latest news in the newspaper. What's this? ELIZABETH JOHNSTON IS NEW ATTRACTION FOR MILLER AND JONES CIRCUS NOW PLAYING IN PEORIA, ILLINOIS. We read on and find that Elizabeth is a tight wire walker and is really a success.

Leaving Chicago we travel through the lake region and the Michigan fruit lands over to Detroit,, one of the largest cities in the nation. We are met at our train by Dale Hirschy, who takes us on a tour through Detroit in his own manufactured car, the Dalesmobile. The Dalesmobile is the best thing yet and already has many times outnumoered the sales of any other vehicle.

From Detroit we hurry to Fort Wayne to do some needed shopping. As we speed past Calhoun and Berry streets we hear a loud whistle. We stop and Policeman Raymond Zurcher writes our first traffic ticket since we started on our long trip.

Since Cleveland, Ohio, is on our route to New York, we find it convenient to consult Gloria Crownover about the latest women's fashions. Gloria has been named one of the ten best dressed women in the United States during 1970. No wonder!! They're her own creations!

We were surprised, as we rolled into Grand Central Station, to be welcomed to New York City by the recently elected governor of New York State--Doyle Arnold.

He wanted, in spite of everything else, to have us hear Crooner Henry Wagley, as he was cutting some new recordings for R.C.A. Victor. Henry is the latest rave among the girls, and why not? He really has a voice!

After leaving Henry we see some of the great sights of New York, and then we go on to the John Robert Powers modeling studio where we find Jean Haines. Miss Haines is doing a tremendous job modeling bathing suits for Sack's 5th. Avenue Department Store.

Our evening in New York is spent attending a United Nations meeting where we talk with Anna Inniger, who is the chairman of the Human Relations Department of the U.N. When asked why she chose this job she tells us that she couldn't make up her mind which suitor she should marry so she took the first opportunity to escape that came her way.

We check at the Customs Offices for our tickets, passports, etc. for our trip abroad. Our ship, the Queen Mary, sails from New York Harbor the following morning.

Since we know that Mary Lou Hannie is in London, we wire her to meet our ship, as we want to see her swim the English Channel. Mary Lou not only swims the Channel from London to Dover, but also establishes a new speed record.

We are in London for two days and then we are off to Paris where we will see "the model home of 1970." The interior decorator himself, James Riley, guides us on a tour through this model home. Jim is responsible for the many newly decorated homes all over the world.

Knowing that David Sprunger is to appear in the Olymphics at Amsterdam, Holland, we make a special effort to go see him. It is quite a thrill to see David come out on top in these famous races.

After our pleasant stay in Holland, we are off to Spain. In Barcelona, we learn that Fannie Habegger is a handmaid to Queen Isabella the 4th. She tells us that she got her start back in 1951 when she payed this role in their class play.

In this same city of Barcelona we find Stanley Sprunger who is doing evangelistic work among the Spaniards. Since this is Fannie's night off we go to hear Mr. Sprunger speak. He certainly is a talented and inspiring speaker!

We had decided to spend a few days in Spain but we received word from Mary Ellen Byerly inviting us for a tour of her domain in Hong Kong, China. Here in the spacious surroundings of the Orient, we are entertained by the first lady president of China. Miss Byerly has acquired the Oriental mode of life and loves it.

Miss Byerly shows us a pamphlet which she received from Gainsville, Florida. This pamphlet is written by the teachers of Gainsville. Among the persons listed we find Herman Dick's name. Herman is now an intelligent but strict teacher in a little one room schoolhouse.

We surely see that time and people have marched on!! You would never have thought that a class could be so scattered, would you?

But to make matters worse, when we arrive back in Decatur we find that Enos Schrock has gone off in a space ship to Mars. According to Drew Pearson's column he is going to marry a fair lady from the Moon!

Also the inseparable Paulcleodale Trio, composed of Paul Sowards, Cleo Landis, and Dale Warthman, are spending the summer at the North Pole serenading the lady penquins!

What will happen next???!

Juniors

President - Walter Osterman
Vice President - Gene Bluhm
Secretary - Eileen Funk
Treasurer - Don Holloway
Class Sponsor - Mrs. Reed

Last September we juniors journeyed back to school to learn a little more from good old A. C. H. S. After greeting our friends we elected class officers as follows: President, Walter Osterman; Vice-President, Gene Bluhm; Eileen Funk, Secretary; Don Holloway, Treasurer.

At the beginning of the year we presented for the enjoyment of all students a skating party at Bells Rink.

We also sold magazines and Christmas cards, and presented a variety show, trying to make money for the class.

During the year we also enjoyed two class parties.

Patricia Barger, Wendell Beer, Gene Bluhm, Jimmy Brodbeck, Leroy Chamness, Donald Dick.

Marilyn Durr, Frederick Ehlerding, Kenneth Ehrman, Elaine Freels, Eileen Funk, Lyle Gerber.

ACTIVITIES

ENOS SCHROCK
Forward

In this third year at varsity, all fear the accuracy of that one handed push shot. A level headed player, a little weak at footwork, can shoot with either hand, is always a threat on the offensive with his hot streaks. He has shown a great deal of consistency at the free throw line.

DOYLE ARNOLD
Guard

Working in his second year as a varsity player, he is a cool, collective fellow; has an effective set shot, handles the ball well, drives on the basket at the proper time, footwork is well balanced, shoots predomitantly with his left hand although he can use the right, and is always on the alert defensively.

HERMAN DICK
Center

Quiet, determined, playing his first year on the varsity, he is just a good reliable player. Always sparks the team by his aggressiveness on offensive and defensive. Gets his share of rebounds, has a good set shot, and is a worthy replacement at the center or forward position.

ROGER LONGENBERGER
Forward

Small but carries a mighty punch on offensive and defensive situations in his second year on the varsity. An accident kept him out of our lineup for several games but he came back with the determination to overcome any handicap. A serious, hard worker, he is a well balanced player, can guard, dribble, shoot, jump, and handle the ball very skillfully. He keeps the team fired up by his aggressiveness.

JIM RILEY

Small in stature, he is an aggressive ball of fire. This is his first year on the varsity squad. Possessor of the ability to fake, drive, and dribble, he keeps the defensive team on the alert. When the defensive can't tower over him, he has a very effective set shot.

Compliments of Heller Coal,
Feed & Supply Co.; Decatur.

BOB MITCHEL
Center
Still the master rebounder in his second year of varsity playing, has showed great improvement in his work around the keyhole. At the pivot post, he can either pass off or shoot very offectively. He has become a threat at tipping under the basket and can hold his own in that area. A good foundation (size 13), he is hard to move, but possesses a world of endurance.

ROE LEHMAN
Forward
Setting his third year on the varsity launch. Gets off once in a while and plays a creditable game. Keeps team moral high with his razor sharp wit. Has a good effective left hand shot when he looks at the basket. A very dependable guard and rebound man. Possesses the ability to fake and drive onto the basket.

DAVE NUSSBAUM
Guard
This is his second year at varsity levels. He can qualify with the best in guarding ability, shoots good balanced set shots, potent defensive rebounder, and is well grounded in the fundamentals of basketball.

KAY RATCLIFF
Forward
His playing lies first year on the varsity, he possesses a good left hand push shot, has the size and aptitude for developing into a worthy player. He works hard, is sincere in his efforts, needs a little more experience and agressiveness.

DON DICK
Guard
In his first year at varsity basketball, he is showing much improvement. Big and rugged, plays a little rough, can hold his own on either offense or defense. Very aggressive player, has the ability to intercept passes, and a good driver on offense. He should develop into a good player by next year.

When the basketball season opened this year we had 7 players from last year's varsity squad. The following players made up the 7: Doyle Arnold, Enos Schrock, Dave Nussbaum, Bob Mitchel, Jim Riley, Roe Lehman, and Roger Longenberger.

The Greyhounds had a fair season winning 10 and losing 13 games. The highlight of the year was the outstanding offense and defensive games played at the county tourney. The first game in which the Greyhounds played in the county tourney, was against the Commodores in which we won by one point, 48 to 47. Sat. afternoon we beat Monmouth 45 to 32. The greatest excitement came Saturday evening during the final game when the Central Greyhounds met with the Hartford Gorillas and the Greyhounds came within one point of tieing the score with two minutes of playing time left in the game. The Central fans went home sad but proud!

The greatest disappointment of the season came to the Central fans during the sectional tourney. Central had great hopes but they fell Saturday afternoon when the Greyhounds were on the losing end of a 73 to 52 score against the Pleasant Mills Spartans. The Greyhounds had won their first game easily by defeating the Jefferson Warriors 60 to 48.

We think that all the members of the team did a fine job this year under the expert leadership of our coach Max Stanley, who is serving his first year at A.C.H.S.

The remaining members of the varsity squad are: Roger Longenberger, Jack Hendricks, Junior Nussbaum, and Donald Pick. Good-luck to these boys and to all the rest of the boys who will be playing on The Central team next year.

Basketball Squad

The second team came up with an excellent record this season, winning 16 and losing 2. Jack Hendricks, Lester Egly, Roddy Beer, Eddie Nussbaum and Junior Nussbaum were regulars.

Jack Hendricks--Jack will make himself known on the varsity as a center in the coming years.

Eddie Nussbaum--Eddie is a fast all around man. He played the speedy position as guard most of the time.

Bob Heare--Bot was a handy reserve at the first of the season but moved himself up to a starting regular.

Lester Egly--Lester was our sensational forward who possessed the ability to pivot beautifully.

Tom Hoffman--Tom will have many good games to look forward to; he being only a freshman.

Junior Nussbaum--Junior has now been elevated to the varsity to obtain experience. He will see plenty of action in the coming year.

Walter Osterman--Walter is one of our "lightning" guards. He started as a regular by the close of the season.

Harold Arnold--Harold was the man who played the both forward and guard well. He will see plenty of action next year.

Roddy Beer--Roddy became handicapped with an ankle injury this season just as he was at the point of going places. He will see plenty of action in the coming three years.

Eugene Weber and Hubert Isch--They both did a splendid job of being our student managers.

Max Stanley--Last but not least is our coach who successfully guided the boys to their excellent record this season.

SECOND TEAM YELL LEADERS

Our second team yell leaders, Ruth Busse and Juanita Sapp, did a splendid job of supporting the team this year.

The Adams Central Jr. Hi. team had a record of 5 wins and 10 defeats for the season. They lost several close ball games.
The team played in an invitational tourney at Geneva, but were not very successful.

SOFTBALL

The softball team had an exceptionally good season; winning 5 games and losing 1. The team also won the county softball championship and was presented with two trophies. One trophy will be kept permanently by the school and the second trophy must be won by the same school three times before it becomes a permanent possession of the school. The highlight of the season was when Dave Nussbaum, our pitcher, threw a no-hitter at Jefferson and the rest of the team gave brilliant support. On September 28, the softball team played the Alumni in a close game won by the Alumni 15-10. Only three home runs were made during the season and two of these were made by Longenberger; the other one was made by Schrock. Following is a record of the runs made by each player during the season:

This is the second year for the Rekamemoh Club. Our sponsor is Mrs. Reed, the orginator of the club. A hayride to Hanna Nutman Park and a weiner roast was given by the club for the F.F.A. boys. The Decatur F.H.A. club entertained the Rekamemoh girls at the Decatur High School on November 19th. The club went Christmas caroling and afterward had a party on December 18th. January 15th is the annual banquet for the basketball boys. On February 12th was the Valentine party. Among their other activities were a skating party in March, a style show in May, bake sales throughout the year and other money making projects. The club now has twenty-seven members. The pep club, which originated through the Rekamemoh Club, turn out at every ball game in their red and gray.

This year in order to back our team a little more Mrs. Reed started a Pep Club.

The Pep Club appeared at each ball game with their white T shirts, red skirts, and red and gray hats.

Before the basketball season opened the Pep Club worked hard to be ready for the first game. They held practice sessions over in the gym and learned motions for a few yells.

The Pep Club played the school song on their Kazoos.

They appeared faithfully at each ball game and backed the team all the way.

Mixed Chorus

There are forty-five members in the Adams Central Mixed Chorus. The chorus consists of a Senior Girls' Chorus, a Boys' Chorus, and a mixed chorus.

Groups of the chorus furnished music for the Christmas program, different programs throughout the year, and took part in the county music festival.

Band

Band

The second year of the Adams Central band, directed by Merle Goble, has proved quite successful.

There are eighty-five members; five high school twirlers, ten grade school twirlers, seventeen high school band members, and fifty-three grade school band members.

On October 6th, the entire band went to Bloomington for the band day at Indiana University.

They played for all the home basketball games, and among their other activities for the year were, the county festival, a concert and the commencement.

Annual Staff

Mary Ellen and Virginia were the Editor and Assistant Editor respectively. This kept the girls busy but they admit they have enjoyed every moment that they have worked on the Cen-trail Staff. This was Mary Ellen's second year of staff work, being assistant editor in her junior year. The staff members hope that Virginia will enjoy whatever work she has on the staff next year!

Don and Millard kept the Business end of our annual going. Millard being the Business Editor with Don as his able assistant. This has been Millard's second year of Staff work also as he was assistant business editor last year. May Don have the best of luck in whatever position he will hold next year.

Mary Ellen was one of our busy typist. Whatever anyone on the Staff wanted typed they took it to the typists and it was soon done.

Enos Schrock was appointed as the Sports Editor of the annual this year.

Gene, Don and Dave were busy learning the tasks of Staff work and getting their jobs done at the same time. Gene was the assistant Sports Editor, Don the Sales Manager and Dave Sprunger was our Circulation Manager. The work of the boys came mostly at the beginning of the year and they all did a fine job.

This was the first year of staff work for both Gloria and Fannie. Gloria was the Organization Editor and it was her job to see that the pages were all in correct order. Fannie's job was to serve as the Literary Editor, so she was kept busy proof reading all the print.

Annual Staff

Honestly Seniors are my pet peeve! They run all over the place looking for something, what I don't know. You ask them what they're looking for and all you get is a "none of your business" look and a feeble mumble "Lay-out sheets."

"LAYOUT!" Gosh wonder who they are going to lay out??? They must want the sheet to cover the poor fellow up after they lay him out. You don't suppose they are after me, do you? They don't act too friendly. Golly I'm scared, maybe I had better hide. Oops! There they are again. Now if I stay real quiet there may be a chance of them not seeing me and I might be lucky enough to overhear something that they're saying.

Well here goes.-----Gee, they sure talk low, it must really be a secret. WHAT'S THAT??? Someone said d-d-d-dead--l-deadline? A MURDER!!! Right here in good old Adams Central, I'm going to tell Mr. Roberts.

"Hey, Mr. Roberts, quick do something! See that group of seniors, they are planning a murder I know. I heard them say something about laying some fellow out on a sheet and just now they are talking about getting it done by a certain deadline. Mr. Roberts, please, stop laughing, do something!"

"I wouldn't worry kid if I were you. That is just the seniors on the annual staff getting the 1952 edition of the CEN-TRAILS ready for press."

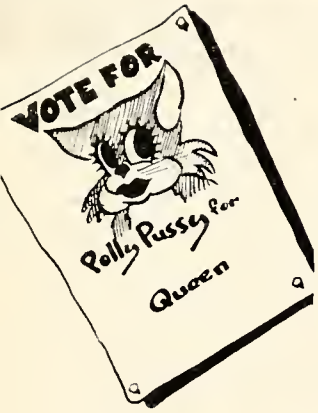
← Queen Anna Inniger



This year a new custom has been added and we hope it will grow and continue to be one of the highlights of the school year. That is the election of the Cen-trail Queen and Attendants. The student body first had an election to choose five girls from the Junior & Senior Classes and from this group of five, another election was held to determine which girl would reign as Queen. January 5th, the student body met in the gym and a special program was given, during the program Roe Allen Lehman representing the basketball boys crowned Anna Inniger as the Cen-trail Queen of 1952. The attendants were: Sally Ross, Mary Ellen Byerly, Pat Barger, and Eileen Funk.

Compliments of SCHINDLER ELECTRIC and STENGEL & CRAIG DRUG STORE, Berne.

Mary Ellen never wants to be a nurse,
Wonder which guy will catch her first.
Roe likes to tease the girls
Twist their arms and pull their curls.
Paul is always prompt and ready
For he just loves to go steady.
Fannie never likes to fight
She always tries to do what's right!
Stanley is always bouncing around
A jollier guy can not be found.
Gloria, a career girl, she's going to be,
Whether she is, we'll wait and see.
Schindler laughs the live-long while,
When you're with him you'll always smile.
Jean is always nice and neat,
Her smile is always pleasant and sweet.
Doyle's the guy the girls admire,
Even when his car's on fire.
Enos is very tall and dark,
And with Pearl he likes to park.
Bob is the guy that is really tall
His favorite sport is basketball.
Herman likes to work on a farm,
To be his friend would be no harm.
Anna likes to have plenty of dates,
Wonder what John uses for bait?
Ray is quiet and shy
The reason for this we don't know why.
Bud likes to make us laugh,
His favorite subject is not math.
Clifford likes to drive his car,
But our main worry, "does it go very far?"
Dale's always skipping school,
Wonder what girl he's trying to fool?
If you hear a rattle, crash, and bang,
You'll know M. E. is in the gang.

Don has a heart of gold
His friendship can not be sold.
Earl has pretty blond curls
And likes to flirt with all the girls.
Liz, is a gal that is hard to beat,
To be her friend is really a treat.
Henry likes to have lots of fun
From all day long to the setting sun.
Cleo is always quiet and shy
But he always seems to get by.
Dave's the guy that is always laughing
And in his subject he is always passing.
John never seems to hurry,
Always laughs and never worries.
Millard has nothing to say,
But he always seem's happy and gay.
Dave wears his Dad's car tires thin,
Wonder whose daughter he will win.
Pauline is always combing her hair,
And worrying about what she's going to wear.
Sally is our tall, thin, blonde,
And of Lester she is very fond.
Lester is a basketball fan
He thinks Sally is just grand!
Dales giggle has a winning charm
He's a quiet guy and does no harm.
Phyllis likes to dance and sing,
Her voice is really a wonderful thing.
Jim has been the life of our class
Without him the years would have never passed.
Mary Lou's the life of the gang,
Whatever she does she does with a "bang!"
Bob decided he was not scientific
Wonder which girl he'll decide is terrific.
